OUR FOUNDERS

OUR HISTORY

Pundit Shivnath Shastri

Brahmo Balika Shikshalaya is a Bengali medium girls' school founded by the Sadharon Brahmo Samaj in 1890. Pundit Shivnath Shastri was the visionary and founder of the school.

It was the second school for girls in Calcutta. The school was named as "Shikshalaya", that means, where a total education is pledged. Going above and beyond the basic core of formal education, the curricula includes: music, drama, needle work, art & craft, various sports, self-defense techniques and more. The school motto is "Shradhhaya-Tapasa-Sevaya", which means "Respect, Judgement, Service".

The development programs conceived are as follows:

A. Construction Related:

1. Repairing and Painting of School Building
2. Repairing and Painting of Hostel
3. Maintenance of Playground

B. Electrical & Electronics Related:

1. Repairing Electrical Line and Wiring and installation of lightning arrester
2. Modernization of Mary Carpenter Hall by improving acoustics, sitting arrangements and projection facilities.
3. Installation of Air-conditioners in Library & Computer rooms.
4. Installation of Xerox machine & Fax machine.

C. Publication & Publicity related:

1. Bringing out a 125th Anniversary volume to trace the journey of BBS from 1890 to 2015.
2. Making of a documentary film to preserve the history of the school.
3. Making a documentary film on Raja Rammohan Roy.
